

The Honorable Order of the Golden Toque
 The Premier International Chefs Honor Society
Founder and Honorary Grand Commander Pierre J. Berard

Pierre J. Berard founded this premier international chef's society in 1961. Chef Berard was elected the Grand Commander for life. The Golden Toque is the "chef's hat." Gold was selected as the color because of its association with premium quality.

Membership in the Golden Toque society is for life and limited to 100 premier chefs. To be considered for membership the chef candidate must have been an active chef for at least 20 years. The chef must have contributed significantly to the advancement of the culinary profession and recognized for his or her culinary accomplishments.

Many times chefs are asked, "What does a chef cook at home for his family and guests?" Chefs of the Golden Toque, their spouses and families, very generously shared the recipes contained in this cookbook. Some of the recipes have been handed down from generation to generation. They are recipes from the heart, seasoned with love and served with the passion to prepare good wholesome food.

The proceeds from the sale of this cookbook "Favorite Recipes by Golden Toque Chef and Wives" will be used for scholarships to educate future chefs and perpetuate the art of fine dining in America.
